2018-19 BUDGET

A public hearing was held on the 2018-19 budget on June 11. However, Council postponed final approval until later in the month (after the newsletter deadline). A special meeting is to be held on June 26 to consider final reading. Information about the approved budget will be posted to the Town's website.

WATER QUALITY REPORT

The Town of Clover's 2017 Annual Drinking Water Quality Report is now available. This report is designed to inform customers about the Town's water quality and services. The Town was not in violation of any maximum contaminant level or any other water quality standard during 2017. A copy of the report is available at Town Hall, 116 Bethel Street, and online at www.cloversc.org.

Live Well Clover is sponsoring FREE fitness classes on Saturdays from July 8 to July 28 at Clover Community Park, 8am. Local trainers will instruct participants on a variety of exercises that will incorporate the park's trails, open space, and fitness equipment. Participants should bring water and a towel or mat.
